While Kristina slaved away to complete the last issue of 365ink, I made like a good boss and bugged out of town to Orlando, FL. Actually it was my first vacation of more than a weekend in more than a year, and I think I kinda earned it.

Having never been to any of the traditional tourist traps of the region, I thought it was just about time. Honestly, mostly my wife and I wanted to go to Harry Potter World at Universal because we geek-out that way, but hey, since we're here, why not hit 'em all.

We did indeed hit all four Disney parks while we were there as well as Universal Studios for two days. And believe it or not, there are no nightmare stories to tell you. We actually had a great time, and this fat guy survived 6 days on his feet for about 12 hours a day. So miracles do happen.

While I can go over all of the great stuff we did, I thought it might be better to share my list of Disney do's and don't's, now that one week has clearly made me the reigning expert on the subject.

First of all, be like us a pick the perfect weekend. Consult with any higher deities necessary to make the weather cooperate. Having never been there, we didn't know that our early March visit where everyday was between 75 and 85 degrees with zero humidity was relatively unheard of in Orlando. Compare the week after we were there when it was a measly 50-60 degrees all week and people froze. Plus it was packed with Spring Breakers that week. So we won!

Next, park at a hotel lot away from O'Hare and pay a little bit to keep your car there and take their shuttle to the terminal. Easy peasy! There are websites that manage those services.

If you're not made of money, you might want to look off-property for a hotel. In other words, we didn't stay inside the park. But being newbies, we were taken in a bit by the "just 1 mile from Disney." This is a massive crock. Here's the deal: no human being is walking to Disney from anywhere. It's not pedestrian-friendly until you are actually inside the gate. Whether your hotel is 30 seconds outside the park or 10 miles away, it's still going to be a 15 minute shuttle ride to the park. Just deal with it, but don't hesitate to stay farther from the park. You ain't walkin' in anyway!

Uber is king. While a shuttle to the park and a ride on the monorail and another shuttle to, say, Hollywood Studios is fine in the morning, after sunset it's a different story. Your mind is in a different place. You are tired and your feet hurt. You have 30-45 minutes of shuttle madness ahead of you. Or you can open your phone and book an Uber.

They'll probably be there in under five minutes, and you're back at the hotel in 10 more for about $10. Done and done! We even had a senior PGA professional drive us for one trip. Interesting people with interesting stories every time we got an Uber. Like Taxicab Confessions but rated PG and in reverse.

Food. All travel for my wife and I revolve around food. Certainly the best food is NOT going to be found in the park. We tried a place at Universal CityWalk called the Cowfish, and we were decidedly underwhelmed. A place called Cookes of Dublin at Disney Springs was pretty good. Christy's gluten-free deep-fried burger was quite drool-worthy. The best food we had was outside the parks at Fogo De Chao (can't ever go wrong there) and a dinky place called Cafe Tu Tu Tango that had artists working while you ate and had the best shrimp and grits ever. Epcot had the best in-park food. I mean, you can get scallops with green beans, fingerling potatoes and bacon drizzle from a kiosk just walking through "Norway." And our dinner at the Biergarten German Buffet was a lot of fun. We met nice people at our shared table, and a chef even came out and walked my wife and her dietary concerns through the buffet personally. Nice touch! Conversely, food at the Magic Kingdom is akin to the worst school commissary food you can get, unless you go to one of the restaurant where you need a reservation six months in advance.

While Universal is not at all fat guy friendly with the rides, Disney was full speed ahead for all sizes. I loved the Soarin' ride at Epcot, and there's a fun video of us on a the Big Thunder Mountain Railroad at Disney World. We were also some of the first ever people to ride the new Jimmy Fallon's Race Through New York Ride which was a good one. And simply being in Diagon Alley and Hogsmeade (Potter) was pretty much worth the trip. Way cool!

A fast pass or front of line ticket is pretty much a must if you want to ride more than two things in like five hours. We got on stuff pretty fast most of the time. If you're spending that much money anyway, just suck it up and go the distance! If only we could skip TSA. ■

LIVE AT HERITAGE CENTER PERFORMING ARTS SERIES

PAUL REISER

SATURDAY, MARCH 25

7:30 PM @ UNIVERSITY OF DUBUQUE
 HERITAGE CENTER (2255 BENNETT ST)

Actor, comedian, writer, and musician Paul Reiser has spent more than 30 years acting in Oscar and Emmy award-winning movies and TV shows. Once voted one of Comedy Central's "Top 100 Comedians of All Time," Reiser returns to his stand-up comedy roots in this rare local appearance with tales of love, life, and relationships.

Reiser co-created and starred in the critically acclaimed NBC series Mad About You, which garnered him multiple Emmy, Golden Globe, American Comedy Award, and Screen Actors Guild nominations. He also co-wrote the show's theme song with Grammy-winning producer Don Was. Reiser recently earned acclaim for his supporting role in the Golden Globes and Academy Award-winning film Whiplash starring JK Simmons and Miles Teller.

The NY-bred and LA-based Reiser will make a number of appearances on screen and behind-the-scenes this year including Netflix's Stranger Things, War on Everyone, The Little Hours (selected for this year's Sundance Film Festival), and more.

Reiser's book, Couplehood, has sold over two million copies and reached the number one spot on The New York Times bestseller list. Reiser's other bestselling books are Babyhood and Familyhood.

Prior to the show, The OK Factor will perform a free pre-show concert from 6 to 7 p.m. on the CyberCafé Knapp Stage. Olivia Diercks and Karla Dietmeyer, cellist and violinist of The OK Factor, perform organic, original music best described as classical-crossover.

Tickets are $34-$39 for adults, $30-$34 for UD alumni, and $15 for non-UD students. Tickets can be purchased at the Farber Box Office Monday through Friday from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. at Heritage Center; by phone at 563-585-SHOW; or online at dbq.edu/heritagecenter. ■ Borrow.

Mom always said "Don't borrow trouble." So I made it a habit to only borrow books from the library. But when my old car died, I needed a loan. I hadn't established any credit history, but at Dupaco, character is worth more than collateral. They gave me a used car loan at a new car rate—and a Free Credit History Lesson on how a good credit score could save me money. Dupaco is more than local. It's a cooperative that puts money to work locally by providing friends and neighbors low-cost loans for cars, homes, education, funding for small businesses and more. Since Dupaco taught me to help myself, I'm finding ways to help my hometown. Instead of just borrowing books at the library, I lend my time as a volunteer, reading to kids. To borrow a phrase: life-changing.

Enriching lives. Some call that smart money. I call it...

IMMIGRANT FAMILIES UNDER FIRE

THURSDAY, MARCH 30

7 PM @ LORAS COLLEGE MARIE GRABER BALLROOM (1450 ALTA VISTA ST)

In this new immigration climate, award-winning journalist Margaret Regan will share the tragic stories of people caught in the chaos of the U.S. immigration system in her presentation, "Immigrant Families Under Fire: A Call to Compassion in the Heartland." Free and open to the public.

A longtime reporter in Tucson, AZ, Regan is the author of two prize-winning books on immigration.

Detained and Deported: Stories of Immigrant Families Under Fire (2015) investigates the fate of undocumented immigrants who are taken away from their families, incarcerated in detention centers or deported back across the border. The book won a starred review in Publishers Weekly, and was named by Book Riot as one of 100 Must-Read Books About the Southwest.

The Death of Josseline: Immigration Stories from the Arizona Borderlands (2010), selected as a Common Read for the Unitarian Universalist Church, chronicles the tragic deaths of migrants in the desert. Both books were named Top Picks in the Southwest Books of the Year competition, and have been adopted in many university classrooms.

Regan's appearance is initiated by Crossing Borders—Dubuque, a group of concerned citizens whose goal is to foster comprehensive immigration reform and to address issues that further this aim.

Regan's books will be available at the event and can be purchased at River Lights Bookstore. For more information, contact Sr. Mira Mosle, BVM at mmosle@bvmcong.org or call 563-581-6043. ■

MULTICULTURAL FAMILY CENTER

TASTE OF THE WORLD

SATURDAY, APRIL 1

11:30 AM-2 PM @ FIVE FLAGS CENTER
(405 MAIN ST)

Now in its seventh year, the Multicultural Family Center's Taste of the World celebrates cultural diversity within Dubuque and the surrounding areas by bringing the community together to share culture, food, and entertainment.

The event features food booths, youth cultural activities, and performances from over 20 countries around the world. Participants receive a "passport" and virtually travel around the world by visiting themed tables.

Taste of the World is an opportunity to display and enjoy America's immigrant past and Dubuque's right, multicultural present. Nearly 1,000 community members have celebrated Dubuque's diversity at previous Taste of the World events.

This free event is open to the public. Donations are accepted at the door. Admission includes a beverage, food samples, entertainment, and children's activities. For more information, visit MFCdbq.org. ■

LIVE AT HERITAGE CENTER PERFORMING ARTS SERIES

CHRIS BOTTI AND THE COLUMBUS SYMPHONY

SATURDAY, APRIL 1

7:30 PM @ UNIVERSITY OF DUBUQUE
HERITAGE CENTER (2255 BENNETT ST)

Heritage Center welcomes Grammy-winning jazz trumpeter Chris Botti, his band, and the full symphonic ranks of The Columbus (Ohio) Symphony Orchestra

Since the release of his 2004 critically acclaimed CD When I Fall in Love, Botti has become the largest-selling American jazz instrumental artist. His success has crossed over to audiences usually reserved for pop music, and his ongoing association with PBS has led to four No. 1 jazz albums as well as multiple Gold, Platinum, and Grammy Awards.

Over the past three decades, Botti has recorded and performed with the best in music including Sting, Barbra Streisand, Tony Bennett, Lady Gaga, Josh Groban, Yo-Yo Ma, Michael Bublé, Paul Simon, Joni Mitchell, John Mayer, Andrea Bocelli, Joshua Bell, Aerosmith's Steven Tyler, and Frank Sinatra in the world's most prestigious venues from Carnegie Hall and the Hollywood Bowl to the Sydney Opera House and the Real Teatro di San Carlo in Italy.

Impressions, Botti's 2012 Grammy-winning release, is the most recent in a stellar parade of albums that have firmly established him as a clarion voice in the American contemporary music scene.

Founded in 1951, the Columbus Symphony is the longest-running, professional symphony in central Ohio. Through an array of innovative artistic, educational, and community outreach programming, the Columbus Symphony is reaching an expanding, more diverse audience each year. This season, the Columbus Symphony will share classical music with more than 175,000 people in central Ohio through concerts, radio broadcasts, and special programming.

Prior to the performance, the UD Jazz Ensemble, under the direction of Dr. Nicholas Bratcher, will perform a free pre-show concert from 6 to 7 p.m. on the CyberCafé Knapp Stage.

Tickets are $45-$40 for adults, $41-$45 for UD alumni, and $19 for students and children. Tickets can be purchased at the Farber Box Office Monday through Friday from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. at Heritage Center; by phone at 563-585-SHOW; or online at dbq.edu/heritagecenter. ■

JULIEN DUBUQUE INTERNATIONAL FILM FESTIVAL

APRIL 20-23
DOWNTOWN DUBUQUE

The sixth annual Julien Dubuque International Film Festival (JDIFF) is set for April 20-23 in downtown Dubuque. Film tickets are $10 each and tickets will be sold at JulienFilmFest.com and the festival's headquarters, Hotel Julien Dubuque, the week of the event.

Not only will you get to see indie films, but you also get to meet filmmakers from across the world, walk the red carpet, and brush elbows with a few Hollywood elites—whose identities will be announced at a later date.

More than 685 films were submitted from over 40 countries this year. Out of that, only 110 shorts, documentaries, and feature films were selected for screening. Films range in genre from horror and sci-fi, to documentaries, dramas, and comedies. Films are shown in downtown venues, all within walking distance.

In addition to the screenings, there will be an Opening Night event, Silent Film Showcase, Awards Gala, Kids Event, and Closing Ceremonies.

Filmmakers flock to the festival because of its $40,000 in cash prizes, as well as its reputation as a filmmaker-friendly festival. The reputation isn't a secret. In 2013, MovieMaker Magazine named JDIFF one of the Top 25 Coolest Film Festivals in the World, and in 2016 it was named one of the Top 50 Film Festivals Worth the Submission Fee.

JDIFF will hold three events leading up to the festival: JDIFF Kick-Off (April 11 at Hotel Julien Dubuque) and JDIFF Sneek-A-Peek (April 18 and 19 at Galena Center for the Arts).

For tickets, festival program, volunteer opportunities and more, visit JulienFilmFest.com. ■

COMING TO THEATERS

Power Rangers (PG-13)

FRIDAY, MARCH 24

A modern reinvention of the Mighty Morphin Power Rangers, a group of ordinary high school kids who find themselves infused with extraterrestrial powers and must harness those powers as a team to save the world.

Life (R)

FRIDAY, MARCH 24

The International Space Station discovers the first evidence of extraterrestrial life on Mars. As the crew begins to conduct research, their methods end up having unintended consequences and the life form proves more intelligent than anyone ever expected.

Chips (R)

FRIDAY, MARCH 24

This big-screen adaptation of the famous TV series from the '70s and '80s stars Dax Shepard and Michael Peña as a pair of California Highway Patrol officers.

Slamma Jamma (PG)

FRIDAY, MARCH 24

Wrongfully accused and sent to prison, a former basketball star prepares for the national slam dunk competition while finding redemption in himself and in those he loves.

Ghosts In The Shell (PG-13)

FRIDAY, MARCH 31

Major (Scarlett Johansson) is cyber-enhanced to be a perfect soldier devoted to stopping the world's most dangerous criminals with the ability to hack into people's minds and control them. But was her life saved to become cyber-enhanced or was it stolen?

Boss Baby 7 (PG)

FRIDAY, MARCH 31

DreamWorks Animation brings a story about how a new baby's arrival impacts a family, told from the point of view of a delightfully unreliable narrator, a wildly imaginative 7 year old named Tim. Voiced by Alec Baldwin.

MOVIE BUZZ

According to Deadline, Kate McKinnon and Mila Kunis are in talks with Lionsgate to appear together in the action/comedy The Spy Who Dumped Me, directed by Susanna Fogel from a script she wrote with David Iserson. The film concerns a pair of best friends who find themselves in the middle of international intrigue after one of them discovers her ex-boyfriend was a spy.

Twenty-nine years after Coming to America's initial release, TMZ reports Eddie Murphy is planning a return to the fictional kingdom of Zamunda as Prince Akeem in a sequel to the 1988 film.

Justice League will very much be a launching point for the DC Comics film universe with a variety of characters making their debut appearances. News now is Hal Jordan or John Stewart (one Green Lantern or the other) has been given a larger role in the film leading into Green Lantern Corps, a spin-off movie a few years out being scripted by David Goyer and Justin Rhodes. Goyer could be in line for an even larger role directing the movie.

With Suicide Squad grossing $746 million worldwide, two spinoffs are in production: Gotham City Sirens, starring Margot Robbie's Harley Quinn from Suicide Squad and yet to be cast versions of Poison Ivy and Catwoman, and the expected Suicide Squad 2. With Squad Director Ayer helping Sirens, names on the short list for Squad 2 include Mel Gibson and Jaime Collet Serra, known for Liam Neeson's Non-Stop and Run All Night as well as last year's Blake Lively film, The Shallows.

With a Matrix "reboot" in the works, screenwriter Zak Penn (Avengers) has suggesting that The Matrix film he is developing is more of a continuation or expansion of the Matrix franchise, saying "no one could or should REBOOT the Matrix." ■

"SCATTERED" BY ABIGAIL BUTCHER AND "STRATEGIC MONOCLINE" BY WENDY ROMERO

TWO PERSPECTIVES

WORKS BY ABIGAIL BUTCHER AND WENDY ROMERO

SHOW: MARCH 24–MAY 21

RECEPTION: FRIDAY, MARCH 24 @ 5:30–8:30 PM

ARTIST TALK WITH ABIGAIL BUTCHER: FRIDAY, APRIL 7 @ 6:30 PM

ARTIST TALK WITH WENDY ROMERO: FRIDAY, MAY 5 @ 6:30 PM

GALLERY C (900 JACKSON ST)

TWO PERSPECTIVES is an exploration of self-discovery by two Iowa artists working in very different mediums. Wendy Romero's work is best known for combining traditional painting practices with drawing, hand-dyed textiles, handmade paper, cheesecloth, a variety of metal leafing and other materials to explore different compositions and dimensional perceptions. Abigail Butcher combines painting and drawing in a juxtaposition of bright color, solid, bold and purposeful pairs with fast-paced, messy graphite marks, and random drips of paint.

Romero earned her Bachelor of Fine Arts at Savannah College of Art and Design and her Masters of Fine Arts at Georgia Southern University. She has been teaching in higher education for nearly 15 years and she has been a practicing artist for more than 20 years. Abigail Butcher studied painting at the University of Northern Iowa and pursued a Masters of Fine Arts at the University of Wisconsin, Madison and exhibits at galleries and art fairs throughout the Midwest.

Meet the artists at an Opening Reception on March 24, 5:30–8:30 p.m. The public is invited, encouraged to attend. All work is for sale. The reception is free and open to all ages featuring catering by The Food Store with special musical guests Eric Balayti and Nathan Jenkins.

Special events in conjunction with TWO PERSPECTIVES include a First Fridays artist talk with Abigail Butcher on April 7 at 6:30 p.m. and an artist talk with Wendy Romero on May 5 at 6:30 p.m. ■

IOWA ART COUNCIL'S MEET THE ARTIST SERIES

SATURDAY, MARCH 25

2–4 PM @ DUBUQUE MUSEUM OF ART (701 LOCUST ST)

Join the Dubuque Museum of Art and the Dubuque Fine Arts Society for an artist talk including the 2016 Iowa Arts Council Fellows, Stephanie Brunia, Brent Holland, Jennifer Knox, Akwi Nji, and Yun Shin, and DeWitt artist Heidi Draley McFall followed by a casual reception. The event is free and open to the public.

If you combined the talents of the latest batch of Iowa Arts Council Fellows into a single artist, that person could photograph their own spoken-word performance, which was inspired by a drawing they made to illustrate one of their poems.

Fortunately, all that creative fire-power belongs not to a single artist but five, who will crisscross the state over the next few months.

Photographer Stephanie Brunia of Oxford, multimedia artist Brent Holland of Des Moines, writer and poet Jennifer Knox of Nevada, performance artist Akwi Nji of Cedar Rapids, and visual artist Yun Shin of Orange City plan to share their work and cross-pollinate their ideas with local artists and arts supporters at five artist talks and public receptions.

The Iowa Arts Council created the multi-discipline Artist Fellowship Program in 2014 to support professional, active Iowa artists who are at a pivotal point in their careers, and who demonstrate exceptional creativity and capacity to contribute to excellence and innovation in Iowa arts.

That support includes a $10,000 grant to facilitate new work and a year's worth of professional development opportunities with local, state and national experts. ■

FIVE FLAGS THEATER (405 MAIN ST)

The Dubuque Symphony Orchestra (DSO) presents the fourth in its 2016-17 Season of the Arts series: Music in Movies. This program combines some of the great film scores of John Williams (Star Wars and Harry Potter) with one of the most beautiful and well-loved symphonic favorites, Rimsky-Korsakov's Scheherazade, a work inspired by the stories of the Arabian Nights (Aladdin, Sinbad the Sailor...).

Local saxophone master Allen Cordingley is featured in the jazzy music from the film Catch Me If You Can. Allen is a Senior Lecturer at the University of Wisconsin-Platteville and founding member of the Ensemble 135 trio, a dynamic chamber ensemble that maintains a vigorous schedule of recitals and concerts in the Tri-State area.

The orchestra performed Tragedy Tomorrow by Dubuque-native Michael Gilbertson in 2012, and this wonderful work, inspired by photographs of New York City in the 1920's, is being "encored". Gilbertson holds degrees from The Juilliard School and the Yale School of Music, serves as artistic director of ChamberFest Dubuque, and has taught the Northeast Iowa School of Music, and a lecturer at the Yale School of Music.

MUSIC IN MOVIES FAMILY CONCERT

A special added Music in Movies FAMILY Concert is approximately one hour in length and includes songs from Star Wars, Harry Potter, Frozen, Pirates of the Caribbean and Scheherazade.

Audience members are encouraged to come in costume to be entered into a drawing for prizes. Post concert activities include photos with Star Wars and Frozen movie characters, an instrument petting zoo, movie-theme refreshments at concessions and more.

Tickets start at $15 for the main concert and $8 for the family concert. Discounted $6 student tickets will be available in the theater lobby one hour prior to each performance. ■

LIVE AT HERITAGE FAMILY SERIES

A BROWN BEAR, A CATERPILLAR AND A MOON: TREASURED STORIES BY ERIC CARLE

SUNDAY, MARCH 26

2 PM @ UNIVERSITY OF DUBUQUE HERITAGE CENTER (2255 BENNETT ST)

A Brown Bear, A Caterpillar and A Moon: Treasured Stories by Eric Carle, performed by Mermaid Theatre of Nova Scotia, brings together old favorites and new friends. Featuring evocative original music, stunning visual effects, and innovative puppetry, the triple-bill highlights three of Eric Carle's most beloved tales.

The Very Hungry Caterpillar joins a whimsical menagerie drawn from the pages of Brown Bear, Brown Bear, What Do You See? Celebrating its 50th anniversary, Brown Bear was written and illustrated by Carle and Bill Martin, Jr. The poignant story of a young girl's unusual quest, Papa, Please Get the Moon For Me, is considered one of Carle's most imaginatively-designed works.

Set to a beautiful musical score, the production showcases a synergistic blend of puppetry and scenic effects that has won international acclaim for the Nova Scotia-based theatre company.

This performance is approximately 60 minutes in length and includes an opportunity to meet performers and puppets in the lobby immediately following the show.

Tickets are $13-$15 for adults, $11-$13 for UD alumni, $9 for students and children, and $4 for a lap seat for children 3 and under. Tickets can be purchased at the Farber Box Office Monday through Friday from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m., by phone, or online. ■

THE GRAND OPERA HOUSE PRESENTS HEARTLAND BALLET'S PRODUCTION OF CINDERELLA

SATURDAYS: APRIL 1 AND 8 @ 7:30 PM
SUNDAYS: APRIL 2 AND 9 @ 2 PM
GRAND OPERA HOUSE (135 W 8TH ST)

Dubuque City Youth Ballet's pre-professional company, Heartland Ballet, brings the popular fairytale to life. The glorious music of Sergei Prokofiev's Cinderella is notable for its jubilant music, and the ballet is filled with lush scenery, a romantic story and comic stepsisters. The enduring rags-to-princess story offers the promise of "happily ever after" with a dose of humor mixed with the majesty of classical ballet. Experience the beauty of Cinderella, the Fairy Godmother, a handsome prince, a gorgeous ball gown, and the perfect dance party. Considered to be one of the top ten ballets of all time, Heartland Ballet's exquisite production is sure to enchant audiences of all ages.

This Heartland Ballet production of Cinderella is choreographed by Megan MacLeod, Artist-in-Residence, and principal instructor at the Academy of Ballet, home of the Dubuque City Youth Ballet organization. Artistic Director is Marina O'Rourke. Featured dancers include Caroline Woodward as Cinderella, Cathleen Breslin as Bluebird, Julia Chavez as Fairy Godmother, Elizabeth Kelsey and Carly Heying as the Stepsisters and Craig Allen as the Prince.

The Heartland Ballet is a division of the Dubuque City Youth Ballet. Consisting of advanced dancers, primarily of high school age, this company performs annually in the spring. Ballets are from the DCYB repertoire. The Heartland Ballet also serves as a touring group, and for special commissions.

Tickets are $20 for adults and $12 for children under 18 and can be purchased in person at the box office Monday through Friday from noon until 4 p.m., by calling 563-588-1305 and online at TheGrandOperaHouse.com. ■

"JOYFUL" BY JILL RAE MARTIN-GOLDEN

JEAN APGAR AND JILL RAE MARTIN-GOLDEN EXHIBIT

WATERCOLOR, INK AND INSPIRATION

SHOW: APRIL 5-JUNE 4
RECEPTION: SUNDAY, APRIL 9 @ 1-3 PM
SINSINAWA ART GALLERY (585 COUNTY RD Z, SINSINAWA, WI)

Sinsinawa Art Gallery will showcase the work of artists Jean Apgar, who primarily works in watercolor, and Jill Rae Martin-Golden, who works in alcohol ink and watercolor. Sinsinawa Art Gallery is open 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. daily.

Apgar's inspiration comes from the small, even insignificant, things that surround us in everyday life. She creates from "pigment, paper, fabric, or glass—born of the earth and crafted by hand and heart into images and objects that share a vision or evoke an emotion or response. The sharing is the essence of the image or object.

Communication. Nothing more. Nothing less." She is from Rockford, IL.

Martin-Golden discovered alcohol inks while looking for ways to make her traditional watercolor paintings more vibrant. Her paintings reflect her love of gardening and traveling. She revels in capturing shapes, color combinations, and the beauty in the ordinary. "My art becomes a picture diary of the days of my life. I see wonder all around me." She is from Roscoe, IL. ■

EDWARD J. AND CATHY GALLAGHER ARTS AT CLARKE SERIES

CARLOS ANDRÉS GÓMEZ

FRIDAY, APRIL 7

7:30 PM @ CLARKE UNIVERSITY JANSEN MUSIC HALL (1550 CLARKE DR)

The Edward J. and Cathy Gallagher Arts at Clarke Series is pleased to announce spoken word poet Carlos Andrés Gómez. Gómez will bring his stunningly honest poetry to Clarke University for a truly engaging arts experience. General admission tickets are $10 and are available at the door or by phone at 563-588-6377.

Carlos Andrés Gómez is an award-winning poet, actor, speaker and writer from New York City. By definition, spoken word is an oral art that focuses on the aesthetics of word play and intonation and voice inflection. It includes any kind of poetry recited aloud. Gomez's poem, "What Does Hispanic Look Like?" went viral online in May of 2016 and reached one million views in less than a month. A Pushcart Prize nominee, he is the author of the coming-of-age memoir Man Up: Reimagining Modern Manhood.

Gómez is the winner of the 2015 Lucille Clifton Poetry Prize and the 2015 Makeda Bilqis Literary Award. He is also the recipient of fellowships from the Andrew W. Mellon Foundation, Voices of Our Nation Arts Foundation (VONA) and the Jerome Foundation.

A former social worker and public school teacher, Carlos Andrés Gómez has lectured and performed at more than 400 colleges and universities, facilitated countless workshops and delivered numerous keynotes and commencement addresses. ■

THE GREAT DRAW VISUAL ARTS SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATIONS

DEADLINE: FRIDAY, APRIL 28 @ 5 PM

Applications for The Great Draw Visual Arts Scholarship are now available. This scholarship is funded by The Great Draw Street Art Competition. In September 2016, over 70 area artists competed for cash and prizes, and $1,500 was raised to fund the 2017 scholarships.

Three $500 scholarships will be awarded to graduating high school seniors who will be attending a two or four-year college and plan to major or minor in the visual or graphic arts.

Applicants must already be accepted into the school of their choice and be able to provide a copy of their letter of acceptance upon request.

Digital submissions are preferred, hard copy submissions accepted as well. Complete application information is available at otlag.com or by stopping by the Dubuque gallery at 409 Bluff St. ■

YOUTH ARTS FESTIVAL

SUNDAY, APRIL 9

10 AM-4 PM @ CHESTNUT MOUNTAIN RESORT
(8700 W CHESTNUT MOUNTAIN RD, GALENA, IL)

The Galena Center for the Arts in collaboration with the Galena ARC is planning the third annual Youth Arts Festival. The event will be held at Chestnut Mountain Resort on Sunday, April 9 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. This one-day event provides a forum for area youth to come together to exhibit and perform their art.

The festival will showcase visual arts, industrial art, drama, speech, choral, and instrumental performances from the regular school curriculum of preschool through high school students. All Jo Daviess County public, private, and parochial schools as well as West Carroll are invited to participate in this inclusive, non-commercial, and non-competitive setting.

The goal of the Youth Arts Festival is to celebrate the spark of creativity our local arts educators inspire and nurture in our children, and to bring awareness to our county about the power of arts education.

"Arts education fosters bright, creative, and socially engaged students who will grow up to be our next leaders, parents, teachers, artists, and engineers. Their innovative ideas will shape industries; their creative thinking will find out-of-the-box solutions for a global society, and will provide students with a way to understand themselves, and have a sense of belonging," says Jane Chu, National Endowment for the Arts.

Fourteen area schools, in addition to area private music teachers participated in the Youth Arts Festival in 2016, displaying over 1,000 works of art and providing hours of performances, viewed and enjoyed by more than 700 guests.

All donations are tax-deductible. Donations can be sent to: Galena Center for the Arts, 219 Summit St., Galena, IL 61036. Indicate that your contribution is for the Youth Arts Festival.

Volunteers are also needed to help on the day of the event. Contact Irene at irene@cteacademy.net if you would like to volunteer your time on April 9.

To find out more about the Youth Arts Festival, visit galenacenterforthearts.com, or facebook.com/JoDaviessYAF. ■

CITY OF DUBUQUE LEISURE SERVICES

cityofdubue.org/recreation

For all of the amazing programs available to area youth, it's hard to hold a candle to the offerings presented by the City of Dubuque's Leisure Services Department. They offer a staggering range of creative classes, FREE neighborhood programs, youth sports, swim lessons, golf instruction, NEW Bee Branch nature programs and other programs available to Dubuque families as the cornerstone of youth activity in our community. Kids recreation classes from Leisure services cover the gamut and then the gamut beyond that. In fact, we counted more than 100 different titles for classes and activities offered. The selection is simply stunning. There is truly something for everyone through offerings from a great variety of experienced instructors and through partnerships with groups like ISU Extension, Montessori School, Dubuque County Conservation and many more.

NEW LEISURE SERVICES PROGRAMS AND SERVICES SCHOLARSHIPS

The City of Dubuque Leisure Services Department is offering scholarships for low-income qualifying families living in Dubuque. Up to 150 families will each be awarded $125 in scholarship "credits" which will be awarded on a first-come, first-served basis, to pay for swim passes, general recreation programs, pavilion rentals, and other services provided through the leisure services registration system. Complete and return the Income Verification form, available at the Leisure Services Office at 2200 Bunker Hill Rd., or the Multicultural Family Center in the Ruby Sutton Building at 1157 Central Ave. They may also be downloaded at cityofdubue.org/recreation. Completed forms must be submitted in person at the Leisure Services Office or Multicultural Family Center to confirm the scholarship. Mailed in forms will not be accepted. For more information, call 563-589-4263.

There's way more for kids to do this summer than we have room for here, but you can get the full list in the new Summer Leisure Services Brochure, available March 31, at cityofdubue.org/recreation or in print form at area venues like the Leisure Services Office, Carnegie-Stout Public Library, and City Hall. With more than 60 pages, it's more of a guidebook to summer fun than a brochure. It's also got information about summer reading programs at the library, youth programs at the Multicultural Family Center, as well as events at the Five Flags Center. For up-to-date information on programs, events, and services you can also "like" their Facebook page at City of Dubuque Leisure Services or sign up for the Notify Me alerts through the city's website.

The City also provides kids an opportunity to have fun and get some outdoor exercise at our parks and two municipal pools. Flora and Sutton Pools open on Saturday, May 27 for the season. Both venues have wonderful water-related amenities like slides and fountains and a host of pool sizes. Admission under 18 is $2 (free under 4), which is some pretty cheap entertainment.

Special population activities are also offered but not limited to mentally and physically disabled individuals. Registration is requested one week prior to a program's starting date. Call the office at 563-589-4263 for any questions. The SPI playground program offers a variety of activities for girls and boys ages 6-14 and toilet trained, for inclusion into the regularly scheduled playground program at Flora Park. Additional staff will be available to assist with successful participation.

CARNEGIE-STOUT PUBLIC LIBRARY

360 W 11th St

563-589-4225

dubuque.lib.ia.us

When school is out, Carnegie-Stout Public Library is basically a treasure trove of entertainment and ongoing learning for kids of all ages. Don't miss out on this critical and amazing resource for Dubuque families this season! Please register for all Carnegie-Stout events no more than one week in advance at the Children's Help Desk or by calling 563-589-4225, ext. 2228, unless noted otherwise.

Frogwarts is a role-play creativity camp originally inspired by the Harry Potter series by J.K. Rowling. Primarily a literacy and character development curriculum, the camp invites all participants to play in-role, sustaining a fantasy character for an entire week. All attendees, staff included, take on a role-playing wizard persona. This year's theme is Magical Beasts and Where to Find Them.

Frogwarts enriches the lives of youth during camp—and throughout the year—by providing a memorable experience which cultivates the creative, emotional, and imaginative intelligences in the campers. In addition to critical thinking and literacy skills, the program provides experiential training in empathy and compassion through drama.

One of the most important aspects of the camp experience is the close relationships developed. Campers must select a "Wizarding name" to use throughout the week. They are split into three houses of mixed ages on the first day during "sorting" and attend classes (such as Transfiguration, Defense Against Darkness, Potions, Gravity Defiance and more) with groups divided by age.

The most magical aspect of Frogwarts, and what sets it apart from normal summer camps, is the development of a story, dramatized in real-time by campers and staff and guest artists. Students use their critical thinking, imagination, and role-play skills to act along with the drama, which is designed to guide students through a process of questioning good versus evil, right versus wrong, to the triumph of compassion, creativity, courage, justice, and fun! Additional fees for optional t-shirt and/or weekend stay-over..

Kids Theater Classes

Three times each year Bell Tower Theater offers theater classes for kids. These classes teach theater skills such as acting, singing, pantomime, improvisation and stage make-up, but equally as important, they help kids develop real life skills like confidence, reading, team work, self-esteem and communication. They offer a six-week winter session starting in January/February, a six-week spring session starting in March/April and a six-week fall session beginning in October. They do not offer summer classes.

RISING STAR THEATRE

Five Flags Center
risingstartheatrecompany.com

Since 2009, nearly 1000 people have participated both on and offstage and close to 20,000 people have attended Rising Star Theatre Productions. The primary purpose of the company is to provide a vehicle for education in production and development of theatre, as well as to encourage community participation and appreciation of all aspects of theatre. The skills that the participants learn from engaging in arts activities will be invaluable to them in their lives. In 2017 they host not only 3 amazing Summer student theatrical productions, but also four great acting camps for kids of all ages. Below we will highlight each camp and then feature this summer's musicals.

SUMMER CAMPS

A Week with Frog and Toad

AGE: ENTERING 1ST-2ND GRADES
JUNE 12-16 @ 9 AM-NOON
COST: $100

Students will join Frog, Toad, and all of their animal friends for a week of crafts, games, and storytelling. Using their bodies, voices, and imaginations, students will retell stories from the classic Arnold Lobel books and make new stories of their own through books, song and dance, and theatrical crafts. At the end of the week parents are invited to join us for a special sharing day to see the students' stories, songs, and crafts!

Magic Treehouse Adventures

AGE: ENTERING 3RD-4TH GRADES
JUNE 12-16 @ 1-4 PM
COST: $100

Journey with Jack and Annie to the land of the Dinosaurs, Shakespeare's stage, outer space and everywhere in between in this week-long adventure! Students will learn about the basic acting tools: body, voice, and imagination, as well as higher level skills like vocal projection and story structure. Using the Magic Treehouse books as inspiration, students will create their own stories, sing songs, and make theatrical crafts. At the end of the week parents are invited to join us for a special sharing day to see the students work!

The Little Mermaid Discovery Camp

AGE: ENTERING 5TH-7TH GRADES
JUNE 19-23 @ 9 AM-4 PM
COST: $200

Join us as we dive into the world of Disney's The Little Mermaid to prepare for our upcoming production! Students will learn about play theatrical games to discover the basic acting tools of body, voice, and imagination and then begin to build on those skills by learning about vocal projection, stage directions and how to write down blocking, as well as good rehearsal etiquette. This camp will give students a chance to acclimate to the material and the art of theatre before rehearsals start in July. On the last day parents are invited to view their students work in a special showcase! Students do not need to be a cast member of the youth production The Little Mermaid to participate in this camp.

Musical Theatre Auditioning Intensive

AGE: ENTERING 8TH-12TH GRADES
JUNE 16-30 @ 9 AM-4 PM
COST: $200

Want to audition for musicals but don't know where to start? Already have a few shows under your belt but want to hone your skills? This is the class for you! Throughout the week students will rotate through singing and acting workshops as well as special lessons in dancing, improv, and successful warm up techniques. These workshops will help you learn how to pick the right songs for auditions, cut the songs, and act through songs, monologues, and cold reading scenes. On the final day students will get to use skills learned in the week to perform a mock audition and callback for special guests.

RISING STAR THEATER SUMMER PRODUCTIONS

AUDITIONS: SATURDAY, MAY 6 @ 9 AM-NOON AND 1-4PM, MAY 7 AND 8 @ 4-8 PM
Auditions for all three shows will take place in the Orpheum Room, second floor in the Five Flags Center (Please enter on Locust Street). Callbacks, if needed, will take place in the evenings of May 9 and 10 in the Orpheum Room. Please prepare a short musical selection and bring your sheet music to the audition, as an accompanist will be provided.

PippinAGE: ENTERING 9TH GRADE-GRADUATING COLLEGE

PERFORMANCES: JUNE 15-18

Pippin rehearsals will tentatively start May 22 and run 6-9 p.m., Monday through Friday, with possible weekend rehearsals. There is also the possibility of day rehearsals once the school year is complete.

JULY 10-14 @ 9:30-11 AM

COST: $50/CHILD ($45 MUSEUM MEMBERS)

Young artists will explore the Museum's galleries for inspiration and head to the studio to create their own works of art in a variety of mediums. The Museum's educational philosophy focuses on experimentation, problem solving and "thinking outside the box". Students create art in a safe and positive environment, finding inspiration in the Museum's exhibitions and collections. Originality and self-expression is encouraged.

The following summer exhibitions serve as a creative stimulus to instructors and students: The Artist Revealed: Two Centuries of Portraits from Cezanne to Dylan will include more than 60 artist portraits and self-portraits, made by and depicting leading 19th, 20th and 21st-century artists, including Max Beckmann, Paul Cezanne, Chuck Close, Thomas Eakins, Kathe Kollwitz, James McNeill Whistler, and Grant Wood.

Staged every two years, the DuMA Biennial showcases the quality and diversity of contemporary art produced throughout the Tri-State area and extended region. More than 45 artists were selected to participate in 2015, representing a variety of media, style and subject matter.

Instructors: Margaret Buhr and Caitlin Donald. All supplies included. Please dress for mess. To register call DuMA at 563-557-1851 or visit dbqart.com. Deadline to register: June 13.

BUDWEISER LIVE MUSIC FEATURES

FRIDAY, MARCH 24

The Hector Anchondo Band

8 PM @ THE BLU ROOM (600 CENTRAL AVE)
Hector Anchondo doesn't just play the blues—he lives and breathes the blues. At 16-years-old, the budding musician picked up his first guitar and never looked back. He was drawn to those artists who played Fender Stratocasters like Jimi Hendrix, Stevie Ray Vaughn and Eric Clapton, but also respected the country greats such as Johnny Cash and Hank Williams Sr. His first official recording, Rookies of the Year, was with his first band, Anchondo, and featured more energetic, Latin-influenced grooves. You can also see Hector on Saturday, March 25 at Flatted Fifth Blues & BBQ at 8 PM.

King Neptune

8 PM @ FLATTED FIFTH BLUES & BBQ (300 POTTER DR, BELLEVUE, IA)
Singer and guitarist King Neptune performs the up-tempo Piedmont blues of Blind Boy Fuller and Blind Blake, as well as original arrangements of songs by Bessie Smith. Focusing on the music of the 1920s and 30s, he is an accomplished musician and storyteller, performing acoustic pre-war blues for over 20 years. From Southern IL.

Flash in A Pan

10 PM @ THE LIFT (180 MAIN ST)
Founded in 2012, named on the assumption that the band would play two shows and dissolve; the Iowa City band is currently in its fourth year of playing all over Iowa. These pickers and grinners bring a fun mix of folk music of many shades. With warm humor and fiery content, this band will have you dancing and laughing, singing and stomping, and cherishing the moments we drink to remember! Noted for their shining harmonies, provocative compositions, and heart-felt performances.

SATURDAY, MARCH 25

Classical Blast

8 PM @ THE BLU ROOM (600 CENTRAL AVE)
Formed in 2012, Classical Blast has continued their journey to explore and combine musical genre to create a new and exciting sound. With growing popularity throughout the Midwest region, the band has opened concerts for Joan Jett, ELO, Don Felder of The Eagles, Burton Cummings, Rik Emmet of Triumph, Stryper, and other national acts.

SUNDAY MARCH 26

Nutria

5 PM @ FLATTED FIFTH BLUES & BBQ (300 POTTER DR, BELLEVUE, IA)
Flatted Fifth Blues & BBQ welcomes Nutria Jazz. From New Orleans, LA. Named after the South Louisiana swamp rat, their original modern jazz compositions and original modern life outlooks will entertain your southern soul.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 29

Rorey Carroll, Erin Hedley

10 PM @ THE LIFT (180 MAIN ST)
Rorey Carroll's sound rolls in low and powerful with the feeling of a Tarantino film for the ears. A new kind of "Country Western Folk-n-Roll." With musical roots in the bluegrass world, she has developed her sound into something unique and bold pulling from rock/american/folk influences. As an writer, Carroll's strength is showing beauty in everything, from smoky bar rooms to the littered streets. She not only seeks those places out, but paints them in gorgeous Technicolor with the voice of one who has been there. Her songwriting delivers the honest subtlety of living the life of a gypsy, while still longing for the simplicity of small town happiness.

MICKEY GILLEY

SATURDAY, APRIL 15 @ 3 & 7 PM

A native of Natchez, MS, Gilley got his start in country music with the 1974 single "Room Full of Roses." That same year, he was honored with the Academy of Country Music Award for Top New Male Vocalist. Throughout the decade, Gilley charted several Top 10 singles, including "City Lights," "Window Up Above" and "Bring It On Home to Me." He took home five Academy of Country Music Awards in 1976, including Top Male Vocalist, Single of the Year and Album of the Year.

In the 1980's, Gilley continued his success with a string of #1 hits, including "True Love Ways," "A Headache Tomorrow (Or a Heartache Tonight)," "You Don't Know Me" and "Lonely Nights." Throughout his illustrious career, Gilley has recorded 17 singles that have topped the country charts.

MISSISSIPPI MOON BAR ENTERTAINMENT

All shows at the Mississippi Moon Bar are 21+ only and tickets for all performances are available at the Diamond Club inside the Diamond Jo Casino or online at MoonBarRocks.com.

COREY FELDMAN & THE ANGELS

FRIDAY, MARCH 24 @ 8 PM

Corey Feldman's new album, Angelic 2 The Core, features his biggest song to date, "Ascension Millennium." He is a well known actor from the '80s: The Goonies, Stand by Me, The Lost Boys, and more. Local rock and synth-pop band Group Therapy/Unicorn Fist opens.

BLUES TRAVELER

SATURDAY, APRIL 29 @ 8 PM

Formed in New Jersey in the late 1980s, Blues Traveler's most recent work, 2015's Blow Up The Moon, features collaborations with contemporary artists like the Plain White T's, Bowling for Soup, 3OH!3 and more. SUNDAY, APRIL 2

Harmonious Wail

5 PM @ FLATTED FIFTH BLUES & BBQ
(300 POTTER DR, BELLEVUE, IA)

Smoldering vocals laced among the jazzy mandolin and guitar; an infectious blend of continental jazz, swing, gypsy music and melodic vocals.

Mark Holder and MPH

10 PM @ THE LIFT (180 MAIN ST)

COVER: FREE

Mark Holder and MPH make a special Sunday Dubuque trip to deliver some slide guitar blues power. "A rock band fronted by a bluesman," the band plays with intensity and precision, even when the rails are nowhere to be found. Chattanooga breeds them hard scrabble and soulful. If you dig Black Diamond Heavies or James Leg, you'll be happy to know Mark was a founding member and jams with Leg on the regular.

MONDAY, APRIL 3

Condor and Jaybird

10 PM @ THE LIFT (180 MAIN ST)

COVER: FREE

Condor & Jaybird is a 4-piece psychrock band from the backwards banks of the Mississippi River. Connor and Jeramie started making music together in 2013. Jake and Bryson joined shortly after. You can see their passion for creating and performing when you see them play live.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 5

Dan Baird and Homemade Sin, Twins

10 PM @ THE LIFT (180 MAIN ST)

COVER: $10

Dan Baird is a singer-songwriter, musician and producer best known as the lead singer and rhythm guitarist from The Georgia Satellites ("Keep Your Hands to Yourself"). Baird left to pursue a solo career and released Love Songs for the Hearing Impaired. In 2005, he began touring and recording with his band, Homemade Sin which today features two ex-members of The Georgia Satellites. Known for their blazing high-energy live shows, Homemade Sin performs a mixture of Baird's solo material in addition to the hits and fan favorites from his years with the Georgia Satellites.

TWINS is a rock and roll family quartet, rooted generations deep in the rich history of Iowa music with a uniquely American sound.

COUNTRY'S SHAKESPEARES OF LOVE GROOVING THE Q IN APRIL

BY CLETE CAMPBELL

In case you didn't know, Brett Young's got your Thursday night planned on April 13.

There will be stories of heartbreak, young love and rockabilly country singalongs for sure when country music's hottest young troubadour of all things loves takes Q Casino's Q Showroom stage at 8 p.m. for the tri-state's most heartfelt show of the year.

DubuQue's hottest casino is pouring on the emotion in April. Singer-songwriter virtuoso Phil Vassar, one of Young's great inspirations, will bring the Q Showroom to life for an 8 p.m. Saturday, April 1 show.

BRETT YOUNG WITH JAKE DODDS

THURSDAY, APRIL 13 @ 8 PM

Everyone, Brett Young notes, travels a broken road to love.

"Everyone leaves a trail of 'almosts' and bittersweet memories behind on the road to 'the one,'" Young said. "It happened to me on my journey—it happens to everyone. Now I use those moments when I write music."

For lost love, Young notes, is a universal emotion that unites us all.

"I guess it is fortunate for me that people most easily relate to heartbreak," he joked. "I'm an overemotional, hopeless romantic who feels everything, and that shows in my songs."

There's been nothing slowing the towering 6-foot-6 California native's rise to almost instant stardom. Clairvoyantly hailed by Rolling Stone as "destined for mass appeal," Young set country radio and hearts from coast to coast afire last year with his insanely catchy romantic No. 1 smash "Sleep Without You." If "Sleep Without You" was the most romantic song of 2016, Young's searing new single "In Case You Didn't Know," from his acclaimed self-titled debut album, may claim the title in 2017.

Young writes and performs what he knows and lives: love. Young's musical journey of love was guided by the influence of some of the genre's greatest and most legendary voices of the heart.

"I grew up with Marvin Gaye, Kenny Rodgers, Tim McGraw—emotionally expressive singers," Young said. "I like that emotion carries the songs, where the music is almost secondary. Van Morrison's 'Crazy Love'—that's just timeless. They influenced me; as a singer and as a performer. I want to connect like they did."

"And when your audience feels like they can relate, then you have something more special than a show, or a sale. You have a connection. You truly have a fan."

PHIL VASSAR

SATURDAY, APRIL 1 @ 8 PM

Few country artists capture the uniquely American emotional experience of life better than Phil Vassar.

The passionate voice, the irresistible melodies and the jaw-dropping piano skills of an immensely talented singer-songwriter will soothe, move and groove the Q Casino showroom when the past American Society of Composers, Authors and Publishers (ASCAP) Songwriter of the Year takes the stage.

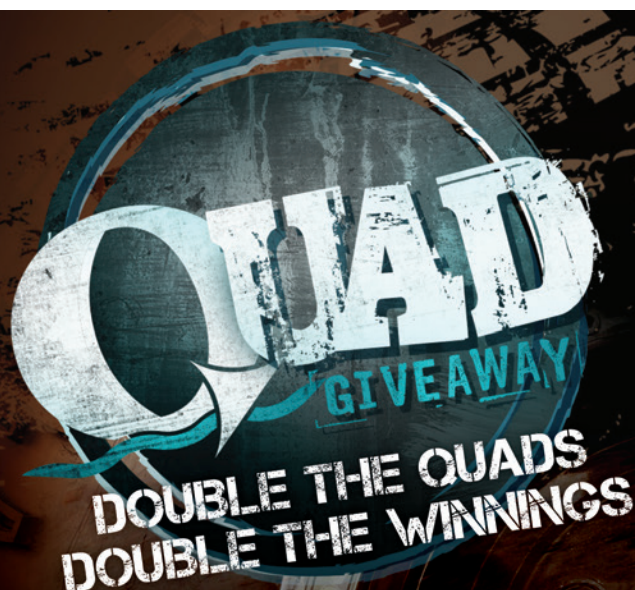

Vassar's moving stories of love and life have become some of country music's most popular songs of the 21st century, including the No. 1 hits "Just Another Day In Paradise," "In A Real Love," Tim McGraw's "My Next 30 Years," and Vassar's emotional Top 5 hits "Last Day of My Life" and "Love Is A Beautiful Thing." Vassar keeps pouring on the passion with his new album "American Soul."

The album "illustrates my growth as an artist," Vassar said.

Come for Phil's moving hits, stay for the remarkable piano solos.

"Phil Vassar is a sight to be seen on the keys," the Northwest Times of Indiana observed.

MIKE POSNER & THE LEGENDARY MIKE POSNER BAND

FRIDAY, MAY 5

8 PM @ UNIVERSITY OF DUBUQUE HERITAGE CENTER (2255 BENNETT ST)

Multiplatinum pop singer and songwriter Mike Posner & The Legendary Mike Posner Band is coming to the University of Dubuque Heritage Center this May. Public ticket sales begin Tuesday, March 28, at 10 a.m. Tickets for faculty, staff, alumni, and non-UD students are $20; tickets for the general public are $30.

Heritage Center conducted a survey with the UD student body on concert preferences. "An anonymous student comment from the survey indicated 'Mike Posner performing at UD would be the coolest thing that's happened in my four years here,'" said Thomas Robbins, executive director of Heritage Center.

Posner's debut album, 31 Minutes to Takeoff, included Billboard Hot 100 singles "Cooler than Me" and "Please Don't Go." His latest hit, "I Took a Pill in Ibiza," amassed over 1 billion worldwide streams, went Top 10 in 85 countries, held No. 1 on Top 40 for two weeks straight, and made history as one of Spotify's Top 10 Most Streamed Songs of All Time.

Since kicking off his career in 2009, Posner became one of the world's most inescapable and recognizable voices. In 2016, his second full-length album, At Night, Alone, debuted at No. 12 on the Billboard Top 200 and included the ubiquitous Recording Industry Association of America triple-platinum smash "I Took a Pill in Ibiza." The follow-up single, "Be As You Are," accrued more than 50 million streams.

Posner has performed on The Tonight Show Starring Jimmy Fallon, Conan, Ellen, Late Night with Seth Meyers, and Dick Clark's New Year's Rockin' Eve. He's also a sought after hitmaker with smashes Maroon 5's "Sugar," Justin Bieber's "Boyfriend," and Labrinth ft. Emeli Sandé's "Beneath Your Beautiful."

Tickets can be purchased at the Farber Box Office Monday through Friday from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. at Heritage Center; by phone at 563-585-SHOW; or online at dbq.edu/heritagecenter. Phone and online convenience fees may apply. Children 15 and younger must be accompanied by an adult. ■

SIRSY w/ Grit & Glory Acoustic

8 PM @ THE SMOKESTACK (62 EAST 7TH ST)
COVER: $5

Inventive indie rock and soul from Sirsy—the powerful duo of Melanie Krahmer on drums and vocals and Rich Libutti on guitar. From SXSW Music Blog: “This is the complete package in a fun sized, rock and roll, smiling laughing, have a good goddamn time with your friends, band!” Dubuque’s own Grit and Glory Acoustic opens, featuring Caitlyn Wolfe and Noah Kachelski, performing covers and their originals, with harmonies and thoughtful instrumentation.

EGi

10 PM @ THE LIFT (180 MAIN ST)

Progressive and fresh, EGi pushes the boundaries of genre specifics to create a soundscape reflecting the freedom that gives purpose to the acronym’s definition: Ethereal Groove, Incorporated. With a sound that has been described as, “what it would feel like to live in The Never Ending Story,” the band’s versatility and appreciation for many genres of music can be heard in their fusion of rock, funk, instrumental post-rock and hard, progressive rock. Starting from tightly arranged structures, EGi builds improvisational passages and high energy jams that seek to lift the band and audience to a higher plane.

FRIDAY, APRIL 7

Studebaker John Grimaldi

8 PM @ THE BLU ROOM (600 CENTRAL AVE)

Studebaker John Grimaldi was born in an Italian-American section of Chicago and started playing harmonica at age 7. Grimaldi began performing as Studebaker John and the Hawks in the ‘70s. As a songwriter and musician, Studebaker John has emerged as a major creative force in the world of the blues today.

Dead Soldiers, 20 Watt Tombstone

10 PM @ THE LIFT (180 MAIN ST)

Dead Soldiers is an American Roots based band from Memphis, TN with influences ranging from Rock, Soul, outlaw country, to bluegrass and experimental music. Songs about poverty, aging, mental illness, and institutionalized racism are just a few of the topics set them apart lyrically from what the world has come to expect from today’s crop of soft handed “Americana” artists. Musically the band draws influence from so many directions it’s hard to pin any one down.

Since the band’s formation in 2011, 20 Watt Tombstone has been receiving an unreal amount of attention. Their brand of brash un-tethered alt blues rock mixed with metal, country and punk blends into a sometimes comedic monster that cannot be easily pinned down, and at times seems so over the top it can’t be serious.

SATURDAY, APRIL 8

Space Burial, Snuff Queen, Pachinko

9 PM @ THE SMOKESTACK (62 EAST 7TH ST)

COVER: $5

Madison’s mean, witty and powerful noise-punk-post-everything band Pachinko Madison returns after a 10 year hiatus, with special guest prog-metal-stoner-doom-core artist Snuff Queen and local prog-space-rock newcomers Space Burial filling out the bill!

Jumbies

10 PM @ THE LIFT (180 MAIN ST)

Jumbies takes the rhythm, energy and motion of traditional Afro-Caribbean musical styles such as Soca and Reggae, the vibrant sound of the steel pan, and a high-energy funk backing band and spins out a tasty cocktail of seriously danceable music. What further blows the mind is that this sound comes out of five guys from Iowa. All who see them are sure to be possessed by the spirit of Jumbies!

BREW & BREW

BY RICH BELMONT

Coffeehouse chains like Starbucks, Caribou and McCafé are seemingly everywhere. So it's gratifying to know there are still young people willing to take a chance and risk everything they own to open up a small independent coffee café.

One such person is Becca Miller, who with her mother Jill Miller's help purchased Brew & Brew in Dyersville, Iowa. Becca began serving coffee and sandwiches on January 23, 2017.

Brew & Brew is in a building constructed in 1901 or 1902. There is a freight elevator in the back which indicates it was a commercial business and the front part of the building has a very high tin ceiling. This suggests there was a retail store in place since tin ceilings were once used to impress customers. Some people believe the space might have been part of a JC Penney Department Store that occupied the adjoining building.

REUBEN WITH POTATO SOUP

Then for a while it became a flower shop, then Groovy Grounds Coffeehouse for about 10 years and then new owners changed the name to Brew & Brew who operated it for about a year and a half before selling it to Jill and Becca Miller.

Becca is only 25 and already she has four employees. She also has a lot of good ideas on how to grow the business and when you visit you can see she obviously knows what she is doing.

Becca grew up on a farm in Manchester, IA. She graduated from Kirkwood Community College in Cedar Rapids with a degree in Beef Production Management. She tended bar and was recently an AI Technician living in Rochester, Minnesota.

She is also a fabulous baker! She has done cakes and pastries for numerous bridal showers and birthday parties.

It is not surprising, then, she has introduced her bakery items at Brew & Brew. There is always an assortment of Danish, Scones, Muffins and her scrumptious Cinnamon Rolls and Sticky Buns.

Becca also bakes fabulous cupcakes. The Cupcake of the Day is a special treat. You might find for example: Butterfinger, Mocha, Chocolate Mint, Vanilla Bean or Chocolate Peanut Butter just to name a few.

Of course, it goes without saying a coffeehouse must have good coffee. Becca only uses Organic Fair Trade Beans roasted in Iowa. The beans are ground to order for each cup of coffee and brewed through a drip process.

WRAP AND SOUP

Espresso coffee drinks include Mocha, Cappuccino, Latte, Macchiato, Café Ole, Breve and Americano. The Specialty Coffee Drinks are excellent. They include Turtle Mocha, Chocolate Peppermint Mocha, White Russian Mocha and Caramel Macchiato.

There are a number of Ice Cream Drinks and Blended or Iced Coffee Drinks for your drinking pleasure. My favorite is the Chocolate Mocha Freeze: a rich, creamy chocolate flavored coffee blended with vanilla ice cream mix and topped with homemade whipped cream and chocolate sauce.

Fruit Smoothies are always a good choice.

The current menu includes these flavors: Strawberry, Wild Berry, Peach, Mango, Strawberry Banana and Strawberry Lemonade.

Becca says she is starting to see regular customers coming in for her Protein Shakes. There are eleven of them so there is probably one with your name on it. They include Vanilla and Chocolate and also some unusual ones like Chai Vanilla with low sugar spiced chai and vanilla protein; Crazy Monkey chocolate vanilla protein and banana and Superman Energy Shake blend of vanilla protein, chai seeds and peanut butter.

Of course, a coffeehouse that opens at 6:30 in the morning must have breakfast sandwiches and Brew & Brew has some really good ones. They are a Fried Egg and American Cheese with your choice of sausage or ham on sourdough bread, English Muffin or a Bagel.

There is a different soup every day. Some examples are Corn Chowder, Cheesy Potato, Chicken Wild Rice and Chili.

The salads are fresh and crispy because the mixed greens are grown at FarmTek right here in Dyersville. The four salads listed on the menu are all outstanding. Two of them are especially interesting:

Mandarin Chicken – grilled chicken, mandarin oranges, walnuts, tomatoes, celery, Monterey Jack cheese, croutons with Pineapple Mango Vinaigrette.

Fiesta Bean Salad – grilled chicken, salsa, tomatoes, green bell peppers, red onion, black olives, black beans, a grated cheese blend and ranch dressing. This salad is delicious because all the flavors are so compatible with each other.

The Wraps are quite good. I especially like the Walnut Turkey Dijon. The tortilla is stuffed with turkey, tomatoes, walnuts, celery, mandarin oranges, honey mustard, cheese and mixed greens.

The menu boasts nine excellent sandwiches. They are served Panini style meaning they are pressed and contain several slices of meat and/or melted cheese. In my opinion there are several standouts:

The Philly – roast beef, sautéed onions, green peppers, mushrooms and provolone on a hoagie bun.

The Chicken – chicken salad, bacon, greens and provolone on a hoagie bun.

The Reuben – thinly sliced corned beef, Swiss cheese, Thousand Island dressing and sauerkraut on marble rye bread.

The Wilbur – this is the Specialty of the House and is my favorite! It is an impressive sandwich consisting of smoked BBQ pulled pork, served on a toasted brew pub bun. Becca prepares pork shoulder with her own blend of spices and then smokes it for twelve hours.

(Fun Fact: This sandwich is named for a very famous pig. He was the main character in a children's book written by E.B. White and published on October 15, 1952. It tells the story of Wilbur the pig and his friendship with a barn spider whose name is the title of the book. Can you guess the name of this book? It is Charlotte's Web!)

Brew & Brew has free Wi-Fi and is open on some nights for Live Music Special Events. Check the Facebook page for dates and band information.

Cakes and cupcakes can be special ordered. Catering is available. Already Becca has done several bridal showers and rehearsal dinners. Her facility is available for private parties during the off hours. When she provides the catering you get the room for free. Last week she did a dinner for 80 people. The guests enjoyed Pulled Pork Sandwiches, beans, coleslaw and cupcakes for dessert!

Brew & Brew is only a 23 mile ride and takes only 30 minutes from the intersection of HI Way 20 and Northwest Arterial. Just take HI Way 20 to exit 294. Turn right onto 9th Street SE and head into downtown Dyersville. (Fun Fact: In Dyersville the main roads are all numbered and Avenues go East and West and Streets go North and South. Brew & Brew is near the intersection of 1st Ave. E and 2nd Street NE). ■

IT'S EASY TO BE NEGATIVE

BY MATT BOOTH

A common sense approach to a positive attitude

If you seem to sharply remember and dwell on negativity, there is no need to freak out. In fact, you are simply a product of being human. As humans, we were designed to be aware of negative circumstances. This helped our ancestors survive. This is why it is easier for us to be negative than it is to be positive. Even though this is true, remember that nothing else has a greater effect on you than your attitude. It's your biggest asset. It's more crucial than ever to protect your positive attitude.

According to Dr. Martin Seligman, attitude is a better predictor of success than I.Q., education, grade point average, and almost any other factor. He establishes that people with positive attitude stay healthier, have better relationships, make more money, have better sex, and go further in their careers. The research indicates that an improvement in your attitude makes all the difference world.

Think about cavemen who went out gathering food for their families. Those who survived did so because they were sharply aware of all the negative stuff that could happen to them. In modern times, you might not be running from predators, but you will find your positivity under constant attack. Think of the challenges you face every day as assaults on your positive attitude. Friends, family, co-workers, and even complete strangers become predators trying to take you down.

It is true that we don't regularly run from predators today, but what remains is an evolutionary imprint called the negative bias. Your brain is simply built with a greater sensitivity to unpleasant news. This bias makes it easier and almost natural for us to be negative. For the same reason political smear campaigns make a bigger impression than positive campaigns, nastiness just makes a bigger impact in our brains. While this bias may serve us in situations related to survival, it causes distress in everyday life.

Your attitude impacts how other people perceive you, right through to the signals you're unconsciously sending out. Your attitude sets the tone of your voice, the quality of your thoughts, and is reflected in your facial expressions and body language. It is important to understand that the negative bias in your DNS makes it much easier to be negative than positive. You must work to overcome your negative bias and protect your positive attitude.

To protect your positive attitude, eliminate or reduce the negative influences in your life and replace them with positive ones. You are bombarded with messages throughout the day and night. Some of them are good and some of them are just plain bad. Avoid or reduce anything that puts your positive attitude in jeopardy. If the morning news gets you down, turn it off. If your co-worker likes to gossip and back stab, do not go to lunch with him.

In our modern world, having a negativity bias is no longer necessary for survival. However, your brain is still wired to constantly be on the lookout for danger. Your brain is wired for negativity. Discipline yourself to take action against all those who want to attack you. Protect your positive attitude like a mamma bear protecting her baby. Taking this position will only enhance your chances of satisfaction and success. Giving into negativity is easy and even part of our DNA. Left unchecked, the negativity bias will become a serious obstacle to your happiness and success. If you don't defend your positivity, who will? ■
"You can wake up looking at the negativity all around you and get overwhelmed. Or you can look at the positivity and believe you can find a way." —Matt Booth

NATIONAL NUTRITION MONTH— PUT YOUR BEST FORK FORWARD

BY HY-VEE NUTRITIONISTS MEGAN HORSTMAN (ASBURY), AMY CORDINGLEY (LOCUST), AND KELLY GUDENKAUF RD, LD (DODGE)

The 2017 National Nutrition Month theme is “Put Your Best Fork Forward.” You may have heard put your best foot forward, but what does put your best fork forward mean? One bite at a time, one forkful at a time, one snack/meal at a time, one step at a time. All these small changes add up to forward progress toward a healthier lifestyle.

How much versus what we eat. Is one more important than the other? Not necessarily; both are equally important. You want the majority of your calories to be nutrient dense, meaning rich in nutrients for the number of calories involved. For example, 500 calories from candy (low nutrient density) is quite different than 500 calories from blueberries (high nutrient density). For a nutrient dense soup, check out the Turkey-White Bean Chili recipe at the end of this article.

Best Fork Forward: Snack Smarter. Perhaps it’s your sweet tooth that’s the hardest to satisfy while still making an effort to live a healthy lifestyle. For the sweet and salty combination, try mixing dark chocolate chips into a homemade trail mix with nuts, seeds and popcorn.

Purchase chocolate-covered berries and dried fruit; then portion into single-serving bags so you are ready to curb those sweet cravings and still stay on track.

Ask the experts. Because Hy-Vee knows the value of health and the impact it can have on our lives, the company has a force of more than 225 registered dietitians ready to help you reach your wellness goals. Registered dietitians are the real nutrition experts. From store tours to cooking classes to individual consultations to Begin, a 10-week weight management program, Hy-Vee registered dietitians offer many different services to make your life easier, healthier and happier. Now is the perfect time to take back your health by signing up for Begin and change your lifestyle. Contact your local Dubuque Hy-Vee store to set-up an appointment with our dietitians.

If not now, when? Put your best foot and fork forward in celebration of National Nutrition Month. ■

TURKEY-WHITE BEAN CHILI

MAKES 4 SERVINGS

All you need:

- Hy-Vee nonstick olive oil cooking spray
- 1 lb. 99%-lean ground turkey breast
- 1 cup chopped onion
- 1 (1.25-oz.) packet Hy-Vee 30%-less-sodium taco seasoning mix
- ½ cup chopped red bell pepper
- ½ cup chopped green bell pepper
- 2 cups Hy-Vee 33%-less-sodium chicken broth
- 1 (15.8-oz.) can reduced sodium great northern beans
- 1 (10-oz.) can Rotel tomatoes with green chilies
- 1 (8-oz.) can Hy-Vee tomato sauce
- Desired toppings: Hy-Vee plain Greek yogurt, chopped cilantro, avocado slices or
- Hy-Vee reduced-fat finely shredded Mexican cheese blend

All you do:

1. Spray a stock pot with nonstick cooking spray. Place turkey, onion and seasoning mix in stock pot. Cook over medium heat until turkey is brown and onion is tender.
2. Stir in bell pepper, broth, beans, tomatoes and tomato sauce. Bring to boiling; reduce heat. Simmer, covered, for 10 minutes. Serve with desired toppings.

Dietitian’s Tip:

Top this chili with a few slices of the dietitian’s pick of the month—avocado!

DANCING WITH MR. D

BY BOB GELMS

In The Devil's Due: A Thriller, Frank Kelleher is the vehicle L. D. Beyer uses to tell the tale of the searing violence and personal tragedy experienced by the people of Ireland between 1916 and 1923. Twenty-six of the thirty-two counties in Ireland won their freedom from British occupation but it was at an appalling cost.

This pressure cooker, 700 years in the making, exploded on the Monday after Easter in 1916. Called the Easter Rising, troops from the Irish Volunteers (soon morphing into the IRA) attacked targets around the country, declaring Ireland to be a Republic separate from Great Britain. The uprising failed and almost all of the participants were executed.

Three years later, the gorilla war known as the Irish War for Independence started. This was kicked into high gear by an act of terrorism by British troops: Bloody Sunday. The Monday after Easter in 1919, fourteen undercover intelligence operatives were killed by members of the IRA. Later that afternoon, British forces entered a sports stadium where thousands of people were watching a football game. They drove a tank onto the field and, unprovoked, shot indiscriminately into the crowd killing 16 and wounding 65 unarmed civilians including women and children and one of the players. This led to many operations by the IRA, most of which were directed at military targets like Argyll Manor.

Frank Kelleher goes on this mission for the IRA. They were to burn down Argyll Manor, a large home belonging to a Protestant landowner. The IRA wanted it done before the RIC, British police in Ireland, moved in and turned it into a large base of operations. Someone passed the information to the Brits and they were waiting. As a result, Frank's three accomplices were killed and quite a number of Brit forces. Frank escapes. Just to show you what a strange and paranoid place Ireland was, Frank was heavily pursued by both British forces, known as the Black & Tans, and by the IRA who knew someone was a traitor and since Frank was the only one left alive it must be him. (It wasn't.)

Both sides wanted to kill him, no trial, just a bullet in the back of the head. Frank had no choice. There was nowhere to hide so he left Ireland under an assumed identity and went to America. Compounding Frank's state of mind is his girlfriend. He married her just before going to America. She had a baby when Frank was away. The baby didn't survive. He kept his wife a secret for fear the Brits or the IRA would use her to coerce Frank to turn himself in.

When the war was over, an amnesty was declared and Frank decides to surreptitiously return, intending to clear his name and find out who the traitor was.

Masquerading as a priest, he reconnects with IRA friends who didn't believe he was a traitor. Frank's main accuser is the commander of his IRA Brigade. Frank has information that his commander knows who framed him.

From that point forward it's a cat and mouse game of treachery, death and conspiracy. It gets very hard to know who the good guys are and who the bad guys are. At this time in the history of Ireland, justice was almost nonexistent and was, most of the time, personal, savage, bloody and violent. This was on Frank's mind. He would do whatever it took to clear his name.

Mr. Beyer has done his homework well. This is an impressive novel. I don't read a lot of historical fiction so I'm surmising that this one must be near the top of the heap. Its historical parts are right on the mark and his main character brings out the intense story of how Ireland got to be the country we know today. If you are interested in the story of Ireland accompanied by a ripping yarn, The Devil's Due: A Thriller comes with my highest recommendation. ■

Move over, Steve! Do it yourself advice from a new mom who knows how...

by Sara Carpenter
from Steve's Ace Home & Garden

Spring is officially here and I have been getting lots of questions from people who are anxious to work in their yards. Pruning trees and shrubs can be one of the most daunting tasks we do in the garden. From the best tools to use to the proper place to cut, it can all be very overwhelming. Here are a few pointers for successful pruning...

Now is a great time to get out in your yard and prune just about everything except early spring blooming shrubs and oak trees, as pruning them now can make oaks more susceptible to certain diseases. By pruning just before spring growth starts, the fresh wounds are exposed for only a short length of time before new growth begins the wound sealing process.

Determine when the shrub you are considering pruning typically blooms. Early blooming shrubs and trees such as Rhododendrons, Weigelas, Forsythias, Lilacs and Crabapples should be avoided until after they bloom. Then within approximately one month after that initial bloom, prune the spent blooms off and shape as needed.

You can choose to prune up to one-third of the overall size of a plant back without stressing it too much.

Plants with marginally hardy woody stems, such as roses, some hydrangeas, and clematis, should be pruned back to where the stems are green.

Prune any rubbing or crossing branches on young trees to encourage a healthy form long term. Remove any suckers that emerge near the base of the trunk. Gradually remove too low branches near the bottom of the canopy as new taller growth appears.

As plants become tired and overgrown, it can rejuvenate them to do some aggressive pruning. Choose up to one-third of the oldest, thickest stems and remove them right off of the ground. I often use my Sawzall to do this job as I can get in some tighter spots with it. Do this each year until there are no longer any thick, overgrown trunks left.

Be sure to use clean, well sharpened pruners to make any cuts. Dip the blades in a bleach solution in between cuts to ensure that you do not spread disease by accident.

Use anvil pruners for cutting out dead wood as they crush the stems and choose bypass pruners for green, live growth.

Consider applying a dormant oil spray to trees and shrubs that are more prone to insect damage now to protect them all summer long.

With the growing popularity of dwarf shrubs available, note that not all plants will require regular, if any, pruning and in doing so, you can really take away from the overall natural habit of those shrubs. If you have any specific pruning questions, feel free to stop by the garden center and talk to one of our knowledgeable garden team members or email me at sara@stevesace.com. Happy Pruning! ■

DEAR GWEN,
My car got egged. I'm annoyed. I called my landlord to see if it was caught on camera, but they didn't get back to me. Is it 1970? Who eggs cars anymore? Don't kids just play Farmville on Facebook all day? What should I do?
—Sincerely, Eggface

DEAR EGGFACE,
Sounds like they got you pretty good. Let me tell you a story.
When I was 15, I was in the backseat of a moving car with a carton of eggs. Desperate for people to think I was tough or cool or something, I threw one. It was on Green Street. I remember the street because I worried and felt guilty about that egg for years and years.
Ten years later, this year, someone egged my car. And, being the grumpiest old man that I am, I got ahold of my landlord and I hunted those idiot kids down and yelled at them because I don't believe in karma and it wasn't even homecoming week. Eggs are for homecoming week.

Kids deserve what they have coming to them if they are dumb enough to get caught on camera. I was a little genius... or...I was in high school before everyone had security cameras. Either way, you should take matters into your own hands! If your landlord won't get you the security footage, get up on a ladder, or break into an office and get it yourself.

Maybe re-egg your car, so when you find said dumb kids, you can make them wash it off! Maybe egg your whole house! Inside, too! Then you can laugh and laugh and they can scrub and scrub. Maybe you can egg them.

Or whatever, you could leave them alone and they could be racked with guilt for ten years until some kid eggs their car. That is, if you believe in karma.
—xoxo Gwen

DEAR GWEN,
My winter blues just won't subside. I've tried everything: Vitamin D supplements, happy lamps, therapy, exercise...nothing even makes a dent. I figured once the days started getting longer, I'd feel better, but here we are, a few days after the Vernal Equinox, and I still feel like complete junk. Help?
—Yours, Sad

DEAR SAD,
Sounds like YOU are wearing your FAILURE FACE. It's okay. As a person who wears a failure face all year round, I can tell you what to do from experience. You'll never hear this from a doctor: feel like junk.

Eat too much food (microwavable or ordered in) and eat it in the bathtub. If you drop a Cheeto or piece of popcorn in the water and it gets waterlogged and squishy, eat it anyway. It's what sad people do. Eat things that crumble in bed: cookies, crackers, old pizza. Roll around in the crumbs with your laptop and watch CW shows. Get very involved in some fictitious teenagers lives.
Wear one outfit, so you never have to do laundry. Yeah, you'll always be wearing something disgusting, but it'll be one less chore for you to do.
Stalk your ex-boyfriends on Facebook, especially the one who blocked your number, hooked up with a hot redhead, and moved to India. Instagram is good for stalking, too. Save pictures of him and his hot redheaded girlfriend to your desktop in a folder labeled "BUMMER." Write him emails and save them in your drafts folder. Accidentally send one and then call Google to see if they can intercept it, realize they can't, and cry for four days.

Online shop with money you don't have. Spend $400 on rugs, hate them when they show up at your door, and try to sell them back to your mailman. Buy lipsticks that cost $40. Wear them to bed. Buy another bottle of fancy lotion, even though you have a bathroom full of lotions you've used once.

Buy a plant. Store all of your self-worth in the plant and then accidentally kill it. See your dreams die.
—Godspeed. xoxo Gwen

GENERAL BOB IS AT THE COURTHOUSE

ARIES (MAR 21-APR 19)

You're likely to undertake some seemingly urgent internal decomposition projects in order to get your body in tip-top shape. It could be that a few minor reconstructive plastic surgeries, a new outlook on life, and the kind of mental-overhaul hypnosis reserved for Stockholm Syndrome sufferers are all that's needed.

TAURUS (APR 20-MAY 20)

Don't be surprised if the interior-decorating bug bites you soon in your indecisive bones. You may decide you can't live with the color of your bedroom one second longer and then the next moment find yourself scratching quotes from the works of Camus into the bathroom stall of Home Depot between severe bouts of hyperventilation.

GEMINI (MAY 21-JUNE 20)

If you aren't planning on traveling soon, you will likely find yourself suddenly aged 50 years and telling a cardboard cutout of a bottle of Mountain Dew Amp in a gas station how beautiful Epworth is this time of year. You will be sharing a room with someone special—if convicted.

CANCER (JUNE 21-JULY 22)

A close friend or significant other may accompany you during your difficult times ahead, but it's also possible that they will turn on you, trap you in between dimensions, and use your identity to create a new race of humans that look exactly like a combination of you and an armadillo but are otherwise perfect. You can look forward to all the romantic possibilities that come with existential dread.

LEO (JULY 23-AUG 22)

A trip to a museum or gallery could bring you some interesting insights into how all life forms undo themselves over time. In leveraging this against your landlord, it could mean you can pay your rent late and in the form of war bonds.

VIRGO (AUG 23-SEP 22)

Maybe you will ignore the social networking you've relied on for so long and instead open a book other than Facebook—perhaps The Book of Spells and Chants or 1001 Stews to Make From Roadside Disasters. Realistic paintings and photographs that used to interest you have lost favor to abstractions, like the art of Rothko or the writing of David Lee Roth.

LIBRA (SEP 23-OCT 22)

Home and technology figure prominently in your complete lack of plans and spiritual guidance lately. Perhaps buying a new gadget will add another layer of distraction to your mostly inconsequential hours.

SCORPIO (OCT 23-NOV 21)

If you want to spend the day figuring out how salamanders work, choose the option that leaves you with the least amount of salamander pieces to clean up and the most amount of viable friendships forged with people named after misdemeanors. You're in your element!

SAGITTARIUS (NOV 22-DEC 21)

A phone call from a distant friend could interrupt your project, or, at the very least, your projection of your worst qualities onto the dogs at the dog park who you feel are shaming you. You may speak for a long time on the phone before realizing it was plugged into a jar of pudding.

CAPRICORN (DEC 22-JAN 19)

If you've wanted to get involved in some type of volunteer organization, today may be the day you finally open up a tab on your internet browser to research your options only to close it before typing anything and then blacking out with fear at the thought of human contact. Parking tickets are as real as chemtrails, whatever that means to you.

AQUARIUS (JAN 20-FEB 18)

Despite not getting your full 14 hours of sleep, you've still managed to squeeze in enough nightmares to sweat through the sheet, mattress pad, bed frame, hardwood floor, downstairs neighbors, the bones of dead goldfish stuck in the sewer, and the first layer of hell that you thought you'd wandered into.

PISCES (FEB 19-MAR 20)

When you sign up to support a worthy cause, don't lose sight of the most important thing: yourself. Whether it's an environmental charity or a volunteer opportunity, working to better the planet is only as necessary as making sure you can cut people off in traffic and not really care because it's what you wanted.
